A DREAM OF SUMMER.

BY JOHN G. WHITTIER.

Bland as the morning breath of June
The southwest breezes play;
And, through its haze, the Winter's noon
Seems warm as Summer's day.
The snow-plum'd Angel of the North
Has dropped his icy spear;
Again the mossy earth looks forth,
Again the streams gush clear.

The fox his hill-side cell forsakes,
The muskrat leaves his nook,
The blue bird in the meadow brakes
Is singing with the brook.
"Bear up, oh! mother Nature!" cry
Bird, breeze, and streamlet free,
"Our Winter voices prophesy
Of Summer days to thee!"

So, in those winters of the soul,
By bitter blasts and drear,
O'erswept from memory's frozen pole,
Will sunny days appear.
Reviving Hope and Faith, they show
The soul its living powers,
And how beneath the Winter's snow
Lie germs of Summer flowers!

The Night is Mother of the Day,
The Winter of the Spring,
And ever upon old Decay
The greenest mosses cling.
Behind the cloud the starlight lurks,
Through showers the sunbeams fall;
For God, who loveth all his works,
Hath left his Hope with all.

HONOR THY PARENTS.

As a stranger went into the churchyard of a pretty village, he beheld three children at a newly-made grave. A boy, about ten years of age, was busily engaged in placing plants of turf about it, while a girl, who appeared a year or two younger, held in her apron a few roots of wild flowers. The third child, still younger, was sitting on the grass, watching, with thoughtful look the movements of the other two. The girl soon began planting some of her wild flowers around the head of the grave, when the stranger addressed them.

"Whose grave is this, children, about which you are so busily engaged?"

"Mother's grave, sir," said the boy.

"And did your father send you to place these flowers around your mother's grave?"

"No, sir; father lies here too, and little Willie, and sister Jane."

"When did they die?"

"Mother was buried a fortnight yesterday, sir, but father died last winter. They all lie here."

"Then who told you to do this?"

They appeared at a loss for an answer, but the stranger looked so kindly at them that at length the eldest replied, as the tears started in his eyes:

"Oh, we love them, sir!"

"Then you put these grass turfs and wild flowers where your parents lie because you love them?"

"Yes, sir," they all eagerly replied.

What can be more beautiful than such an exhibition of children honoring deceased parents? Never forget the dear parents who loved and cherished you in your infant days. Ever remember their parental kindness.—Honor their memory, by doing those things which you know would please them were they living, by a particular regard to their dying commands, and carrying on plans of usefulness.

SPEAK NO ILL.

Nay, speak no ill—a kindly word
Can never leave a sting behind;
And, oh! to breathe each tale we've heard,
Is far below a noble mind.
Full oft a better seed is sown,
By choosing thus the kinder plan:
For if but little good is known,
Still let us speak the best we can.

Give me the heart that fain would hide—
Would fain another's faults efface;
How can it pleasure human pride
To prove humanity but base?
No; let us reach a higher mood,
A noble estimate of man;
Be earnest in the search of good,
And speak of all the best we can.

Then speak no ill—but lenient be
To other's failings as your own:
If you're the first a fault to see,
Be not the first to make it known.
For life is but a passing day,
No lip can tell how brief its span;
Then, oh! the little time we stay,
Let's speak of all the best we can.

THE BIBLE.—Some writer gives the following analysis of the book of books, the Bible:

It is a book of laws—it shows the right and wrong.

It is a book of wisdom, that makes the foolish wise.

It is a book of truth, which detects all human errors.

It is the book of life, and shows how to avoid everlasting death.

It is the most authentic and entertaining history ever published.

It contains the most remote antiquities, the most remarkable events and wonderful occurrences.

It is a code of laws.

It is a perfect body of divinity.

It is an unequalled narrative.

It is a book of biography.

It is a book of travels.

It is a book of voyages.

It is a book of the best covenant ever made—the best deed ever written.

It is the best will ever executed, the best testament ever signed.

It is the young man's best companion.

It is the schoolboy's instructor.

It is the learned man's masterpiece.

It is the ignorant man's dictionary, and every man's directory.

GIVING JOY TO A CHILD.—Blessed be the hand that prepares a pleasure for a child, for there is no saying when and where it may again bloom forth. Does not almost everybody remember some kind-hearted man who showed him a kindness in the dulcet days of his childhood? The writer of this recollects himself at this moment, as a barefooted lad, standing at the wooden fence of a poor little garden in his native village, while with longing eyes he gazed on the flowers which were blooming there quietly in the brightness of a Sunday morning. The possessor came forth from his little cottage; he was a wood-cutter by trade, and spent the whole week at work in the woods. He had come into the garden to gather flowers to stick into his coat when he went to church. He saw the boy, and breaking off the most beautiful of his carnations—it was streaked with red and white—he gave it to him. Neither the giver nor the receiver spoke a word, and with bounding steps the boy ran home. And now here, at a vast distance from that home, after so many events of so many years, the feeling of gratitude which agitated the breast of that boy expresses itself on paper. The carnation has long since withered, but now it blooms afresh.—Douglas Jerrold.

A DAY.—A Day! It has risen upon us from the great deep of eternity, girt round with wonder; emerging from the womb of darkness; a new creation of life and light spoken into being by the word of God. In itself one entire and perfect sphere of space and time, filled and emptied of the sun. Every past generation is represented in it: it is the flowering of all history, and in so much it is richer and better than all other days which have preceded it. And we have been recreated to new opportunities, with new powers—called to this utmost promontory of actual time, into the centre of all coming life. And it is for to-day's work we have been endowed; it is for this we are pressed and surrounded with these faculties. The sum of our entire being is concentrated here; and to-day is all the time we absolutely have.—Chapin.

HOLD ON BOYS.—Hold on to your tongue when you are just ready to swear, lie, or speak harshly, or use any improper word.

Hold on to your hand, when you are about to strike, steal, or do any improper act.

Hold on to your foot when you are on the point of kicking, running away from study, or pursuing the path of error, shame or crime.

Hold on to your temper when you are angry, excited, or imposed upon, or others are angry about you.

Hold on to your heart when evil persons seek your company, and invite you to join their games, mirth or revelry.

Hold on to your name at all times, for it is more valuable to you than gold, high places, or fashionable attire.

Hold on to the truth, for it will serve well, and to you good throughout eternity.

Hold on to your virtue—it is above all price to you in all times and places.

Hold on to your good character, for it is, and always will be, your best wealth.

GEMS FROM BEECHER.—From his romance in the N Y Ledger: "A man should be born to the pulpit. A musician is one whose brain naturally secretes musical ideas; a poet thinks in blossoms just as naturally as honeysuckles do; an inventor's head is made to work out mechanical combinations. Men are like trees, each one must put forth the leaf that is created in him. Education is only like good culture—it changes the size, but not the sort. The men that ought to preach should be ordained in birth. The laying on of hands can't make an empty head full, nor a cold heart warm, nor a silent nature vocal. A minister is a genius in moral ideas, as a poet is in beautiful ideas, and an inventor in physical ideas."

"Corn-stalks have saccharine matter as well as sugar-cane. But we plant one for grain and the other for sugar, just because it is so easy for one to bear grain, and so hard for it to make sugar; and so easy for the other to yield sugar, and so impossible to give grain."

"Theology, like old Isaac, always puts its nose on its children to see if the smell of the fields is upon them. Isaac blessed Jacob because it was; theology blesses Jacob only when it is not!"

"A man that teaches can not afford to know too much. A teacher is like a needle. He should be small and sharp. If large, he can not run easily through the garments to be made. The college president ought to be a man—a sort of specimen—something for the boys to remember as a pattern of a man."

A PLEA FOR THE MARTHAS.

There are two classes of good women, the Marthas and Marys. The former represent the active and the latter the passive voice of the feminine conjugation. Without by any means controverting the Scriptural idea, we borrow the names ther used to illustrate facts in modern social life. Both Marthas and Marys are affectionate, but the love of Mary is a sentimental dream and evaporates in verbal homage and empty caresses. Mary will tie a bouquet for you, or possibly knit a purse, if she has abundant leisure. She will join you in a quiet stroll, especially when the calls of duty are urgent in the house; but even then she prefers a drive. She absorbs attentions without rendering many; she makes a luxury of friendship, and either wears it like a jewel, or drinks it like a julep. She sweetly assures you that "you are so much to her:" meantime, except that she charms your fancy, she is worth very little to you.

With Martha it is otherwise. Her love is untiring and practical. She gives where Mary receives. She prepares the entertainment while Mary only enjoys. She smooths your pillow while Mary is kissing you good night, and repairs your wardrobe in an ante-room while you are lost in slumber, meanwhile breathing a prayer for your welfare, of which you do not dream. She takes charge of the children while you go with Mary to the excursion; she packs the refreshments for the pic-nic while Mary helps arrange the flowers. She takes cheerfully the roughest duties because her dress is of firm material, that will never tear or soil; while Mary requires your aid to protect from injury her gossamer barege.

If there is any unpleasant or repulsive task that must be done in solitude, that admits no assistance and elicits no praise, give yourself not a moment's uneasiness, Martha will attend to it. She has a positive genius for that sort of thing. Indeed, Martha is a very convenient person to have in the house. It is pleasant to think that she will do whatever she can for you, and that she does it because she loves you. You sometimes drop her a kind word when you think of it, just to see how she lights up in consequence. At such times she is almost pretty; you regret that she looks ordinarily so thin and anxious.—You hear her cough of a morning, and excuse an occasional neglect of some of your stated comforts. You are surprised and shocked when she dies, you blend your tears with Mary's (Mary is beautiful in tears), and you feel that sympathy is sweet. You plant a rose, not a thornless one, above Martha's grave; and after a proper interval of sorrow, marry Mary.

HOW THE SCOTTISH SHEPHERDS EDUCATE THEIR CHILDREN.—Colonel Maxwell and Mr. Sellar, British Commissioners engaged in an inquiry into the state of education in Scotland, report that there are no classes who display more anxiety for the education of their children than the shepherds of Scotland. "In nine cases out of ten," they say, "the shepherd's house is far from any road: it may be separated even from a pathway by a river, or a mountain, or a morass, hardly passable in summer for children, but impassable in winter. Yet it is an uncommon thing to meet a shepherd who is unable to read and write, and their children are always taught, by some means or other, at least the elements of education. Last summer Mr. Sellar met two little children, a boy and a girl, aged nine and eleven, in the middle of a wild moor in the Highlands. They were five or six miles from their father's house, who had an outlying herding some seven miles from any road, and eight or nine from any habitation. He asked them where they were going. They said it was Saturday, and they were going home from school, five miles off, and had to be back again early on the Monday morning.

"He went a little way with them and met their father and mother coming to meet them. The shepherd told him that they went every Monday to board with another shepherd for the week, and that he and the other herd kept a lad between them to educate their children. This lad cost him £2 10s. per annum, and he had to pay the weekly board for his children besides. He did not know what that would be, but the other shepherd was a reasonable man and would not charge more than he could help. 'And you see, sir, we must give them what we can when they are young, as they must do for themselves very early. The lad does not take them far on; just reading, writing, and a little counting. If they get that well, and maybe a little bit sewing for the lassie, that's all the schooling I care for; but they must get that, or they will never be anything but herds all their lives.' This is no isolated instance. We heard of several other cases where education was procured at great personal sacrifice by shepherds for their children."

EXPANDING THE LUNGS.—Step out into the purest air you can find; stand perfectly erect, with the head up and the shoulders back, and then fixing the lips as though you were going to whistle, draw the air, not through the nostrils, but through the lips into the lungs.—When the chest is about half full, gradually raise the arms, keeping them extended with the palms of the hands down as you suck in the air so as to bring them over the head just as the lungs are quite full. Then drop the thumb inward, and after gently forcing the arms backward, and the chest open, reverse the process by which you draw your breath, till the lungs are empty. This process should be repeated three or four times immediately after bathing, and also several times through the day. It is impossible to describe to one who has never tried it, the glorious sense of vigor which follows this exercise. It is the best expectorant in the world.

BOILING A TEA KETTLE.—Which is the most trying to woman—a greenhorn of a servant girl, or a stove that "wont draw" the day she expects company?

Mrs. Jones hired, the other day, a Miss McDermott, just from Cork. Miss McDermott was ordered to "boil the tea-kettle."

"The what?"

"The tea-kettle."

"An' do yo mane that?"

"Certainly. If I did not I would not have ordered you to do it—and be quick about it."

"Yes, marm."

Miss McDermott obeyed orders. In about a half hour afterwards Mrs. Jones resumed the conversation.

"Where's the kettle, Bridget?"

"In the dinner-pot marm."

"In the what?".

"In the dinner-pot. You told me to boil it, and I've had a scald on it for nearly an hour."

Mrs. Jones could hear no more. She had a rush of blood to the head, and went into a swoon. The last we saw of her she was being carried up stairs in an arm chair.

CONGRESS, THE PRESIDENT, AND RECONSTRUCTION.

We had space last week only to notice the fact that President JOHNSON'S Attorney General, Mr. STANBERY, had "driven a coach and four" through the Reconstruction Act. He has found that it has hardly any force. When the Attorney General prepared the President's veto of it, he denounced it as placing the people of the Rebel States under the "absolute domination of military rulers." He now declares that the military rule authorized by the act, is purely a police power, with no right to abrogate, or set aside the existing civil rule! He either wrote a very dishonest Veto, or has given a very dishonest Opinion. His ability to do both is probably explained by the fact that his overmastering passion is hostility to the whole purpose of the bill; and that, the Veto having failed to frighten Congress from its enactment, he has now no other road to his cherished purpose than to "construe away" all its effective provisions. It is an expressive commentary upon President JOHNSON'S good faith, that he approved both the Veto and the Opinion; and that he is now engaged, actively, in devising means to nullify the law.

This has alarmed the country. And Congress will meet on the 3d of July to see if it cannot enact another law so plainly written that even a subtle and unscrupulous legal mind cannot find grounds for advising a headstrong and embittered Executive to evade it.

The new instructions prepared by the Attorney General, were formally adopted in Cabinet meeting. The Secretary of War voted against most of them. If executed, they will open wide the doors to Rebel registration, will confirm in office every Rebel who is exerting his official influence to prevent Reconstruction, and will strengthen the hands of those in the South who are opposing re-union under Congressional legislation. Its effect, if unchecked, would be indefinitely to delay restoration, to keep alive the resentments of the war, and to prolong the agitation now distracting the country. Congress will not consent to this, and an early session is necessary to ward off the calamities threatened by this new development of "Conservative" malice.

But whatever else may be said of the Attorney General, the Cabinet, and the President, it cannot be said that they have courage proportionate to their hate. For they are unwilling to apply their doctrines to the past, and refuse to rectify what they pronounce to be wrongs committed by U. S. Officers. They refuse to restore Monroe as Mayor of New Orleans, or Wells as Governor of Louisiana.—They turn their backs also on Mayor Withers of Mobile. They permit these "patriots" to remain under the heel of General Pope and General Sheridan; but advise the latter to "do so no more." If these acts were without legal authority, they should be annulled. On the other hand, if the law gave those officers power to sweep away obstacles to good government, they should not be snubbed and insulted for exercising it.

The President by his shuffling course has thus developed the depth of his hatred of the law contemplating early and loyal Reconstruction; and, at the same time, has given the people another proof of his want of that true courage which springs from principle.

THE facts in Alabama illustrate the sort of reconstruction which President JOHNSON effected; and which it is now, we hope, the determined purpose of Congress wholly to sweep away. Over two-thirds of the Clerks of Courts, and Sheriffs of the State, were elected in consequence of their conspicuous service in the Rebel armies; and they are summoning juries of their comrades. The Judges are of the same class, and a Union man has now no more chance of justice before an Alabama Court, than he has had, for some years, in York, or Montgomery, or Berks county in this State. We trust our new jury law will correct the gross wrong here; and that an effective and thorough Reconstruction, based upon the loyal elements of the South, will likewise reform the Courts of the South.

Most of the public offices, in all the Rebellious States, are filled with men who are as hostile to the United States Government to-day, as they were in 1861 when they were inciting to an armed conflict. They were chosen at elections from which loyal men were deliberately and systematically excluded; but they are likely to pass away with the "policy," of which they were the fruits.

RECENTLY, the two branches of the Republican party in Virginia harmonized, and agreed upon a joint call for a State Convention to meet next month in Richmond. There is hardly a doubt of the success of the movement, or the overthrow of the old "Secesh" aristocracy, who under the pretence of being "Conservative," have aimed to re-establish themselves in the government of the "Old Dominion."

The Richmond Whig, one of the organs of that treacherous class, wails forth its "chagrin, disappointment, and disgust," for it had perseveringly comforted itself with the delusion, that the amiable, forgiving, and self-denying Republicans of Virginia would take no steps to prevent the friends and followers of Jeff. Davis from capturing and holding the political control of that great State. It has been undeceived; and admits itself "almost staggered" at the prospect. It will be quite "staggered" at the result.

THE beneficent action of Congress, in throwing open to Homestead settlement the public lands in the Southern States, is having a fine effect. During April and May, five hundred and forty-five farms, over 40,000 acres, were entered at one United States Land Office, that in Huntsville, Alabama. Of these entries, but eight were by freedmen. The great body of the settlers are landless whites. The effect of this law, will be to cut up the country into small farms occupied by their owners, and check the tendency to Land Monopoly which has been a curse to the whole Southern country. It is an honor to the Republicans that they passed this law; it is discreditable to the Democrats in Congress that, with scarcely an exception, they opposed it.

GEN. Grant was asked to accompany President Johnson and Secretary Seward on their Boston tour, but declined "on account of press of business." His experience on the Chicago trip no doubt satisfied him as to the President's popularity with the people.

DEMOCRATIC LITERATURE.

The Lancaster Intelligencer of June 12, "commends to the favorable notice of every Democrat, A Youth's History of the Great Civil War," and bespeaks for it a large circulation in order to refute "many of the false principles promulgated by Radical works with which the country is flooded."

This book was written by Mr. R. G. Horton, and published by Van Evrie, Horton & Co., of New York, publishers of the New York Day Book, a paper which has openly expressed a preference for Jefferson Davis as the next President of the United States, and which, in an article published by us last week, boastingly proclaimed him the great American martyr.

We have seen this book, and find it to be such a one as the Intelligencer's warm endorsement led us to expect. It publishes approvingly Davis's speech on leaving the Senate to become President of the Confederacy; pronounces Lincoln to be a bastard; throws the responsibility of the war upon the United States authorities; slurs over the Baltimore riot of April, 1861; gloats over the absurd Rebel stories about the first Bull Run; even belittles McClellan for his laurels won in West Virginia; treats as crimes McClellan's dispersion of the Maryland Legislature of 1861, and the seizure of active Rebel emissaries everywhere; talks contemptuously of the "Northern army," the "abolition army," &c.; endorses Winder's humanity to prisoners; says Gen. Sherman has made a name which will forever be associated with cruelty and barbarism; justifies the New York riots of July, 1863, as intended for a proper purpose; talks glibly of Grant's "slaughter-pens where he hammered his own gallant men to sure destruction without making the least visible impression upon the enemy"; speaks of Mr. Lincoln as "a trickster, a falsifier, and an oath-breaker"; and of his career as President as a "shameless four years of deceptions, falsehoods, and crimes against liberty," while John Wilkes Booth is extolled as "a young man of no ordinary character, noted for his generous, manly deportment, and dearly beloved by all his associates"; denounces the Court which tried the conspirators as an "illegal Court," and as without right to try them, and their execution as in law "murder," &c., &c.

Our readers can infer from these allusions gathered from various parts of the book, what is its spirit, what its general contents, and how fit it is to be treated as, in any sense, a history. Yet this conspicuous Democratic paper commends as valuable and timely, a book which is filled with libellous statements respecting Union Generals, Union armies, and Union men, and omits no opportunity of glorifying the "Lost Cause," and of almost deifying its traitor chiefs.

The spirit of the book has been faithfully re-produced in the resolutions of the Harrisburg Convention—the handiwork of Judge BLACK and FRANK HUGHES.

THE trial of JOHN H. SURRATT, for complicity in the murder of President LINCOLN, is progressing slowly at Washington. The prosecution is conducted by District Attorney CARRINGTON, assisted by Judge PIERPONT, of New York. The The defence is managed by the Messrs. BRADLEY and Judge MERRICK. The prosecution is weaving around SURRATT a strong and apparently irresistable chain of circumstantial evidence, from which it is difficult to see how he can escape.—Sergeant JOSEPH M. NYE, of Philadelphia, had testified before the Military Commission on the trial of BOOTH and the other conspirators, to the effect that he was present in front of the theatre on the night of the assassination, and saw three men actively participating in the movements which immediately preceded the assassination, one of whom he identified as BOOTH, another as SPANGLER, but was unable to name the third, who called out the time to BOOTH. Sergeant NYE was called to the stand by Mr. CARRINGTON, and on being confronted by SURRATT, positively and without qualification identified him as this third party. Some six others witnesses corroborate Sergeant NYE as to SURRATT'S presence in Washington during the afternoon and evening of the fatal day. SURRATT'S friends have heretofore claimed that he was not in Washington on that day, and announced their purpose to prove an alibi. How they are to get over this testimony remains to be seen. In addition to this, the prosecution has announced its purpose to trace SURRATT on his flight from Washington on the night of the assassination, and show his whereabouts to the day he sailed for Europe.—Among the witnesses produced is a policeman who was in charge of the depot at St. Albans, Vermont, who testified to a stranger sleeping in the depot a night or two after the assassination, and leaving behind him a handkerchief, which, on being picked up by the policeman, was found to have the name of JOHN H. SURRATT on it. The handkerchief was produced in Court.

THE Congressional Executive Committee now has thirty speakers travelling the Southern States and explaining the situation to the freedmen.

JAMES BUCHANAN has sent two hundred dollars to relieve the starving idlers of the South. He should have given all he is worth, as he is, more than any man, living or dead, responsible for the desolation of the South, the starvation of its masses, as well as the burdens now borne by the people of the North.

AN extraordinary divorce suit has been concluded in Missouri. The husband in his petition avers that his wife, since marriage, has been ill-tempered, and for three days at a time have had the mad dumps silently. In view of these harrowing facts, the court listened to his prayer and granted the divorce.

THE Fenian leaders are not to be hanged, the Irish grievances are not to be remedied, and the habeas corpus is to remain suspended in Ireland. That is the substance of the ministerial announcements to Parliament regarding Ireland.

THE Ohio Republican have nominated Gen. RUTHERFORD B. HAYES for Governor. Gen. H. is at present a Member of Congress, and is a very excellent, sound and able man.—His war record is good. Hon. SAMUEL GALLOWAY, formerly of this town, is the candidate for Lieutenant Governor. This platform endorses impartial manhood suffrage.

THE American Variety Theatre on Walnut street, above Eighth, was destroyed by fire, on the evening of the 19th, while 1800 persons were witnessing the performance. All of the audience got out safely, but nine firemen were killed and fourteen injured by the falling in of the front wall. Surrounding property was much injured.

HARRISBURG, June 18.—The body of John Jenkins, an employee in the Lochiel Iron Works, was found to-day floating in the canal, with his skull fractured and a gash in his forehead. The Coroner's jury found a verdict that the wounds were inflicted by some persons unknown. He was at the works yesterday, and as he had money at the time, there seems to be no doubt he was murdered.

CHARLESTON, S. C., June 19.—The comments upon General Sickles' course, contained in the Attorney General's opinion, published here this morning, created profound sensation. General Sickles has to-day forwarded a request to Washington to be relieved from duty as commander of this military district, and demanded a court of inquiry on his official actions.

THE great Summit Tunnel through the crest of the Sierra Nevada mountain chain has generally been looked upon as a three or four years' job. But the Californians, in their impatience to push forward the Central Pacific Railway, have put in practice the underground tactics which their quartz mining had taught them. They attacked the tunnel at both ends, and then sunk a shaft in the middle down to the level of the grade, and worked both ways. The tunnel will be 1,600 feet long through the solid rock. It was commenced last September, and on the first of June only 441 feet remained to be taken out. The progress they made is sixty feet per week, at which rate the job will be completed by the first of August—eleven months from the time ground was broken! Is not this marvelous progress? After passing the mountain the way is open without serious obstacles to overcome, clear to Salt Lake, which the Californians are confident of reaching before the Eastern Division of the great work gets there.

"RECONSTRUCTION" ITEMS.

A DESPATCH received at Montgomery, Ala., from Major C. W. Pierce, Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, states that Alexander Webb, a colored register, was murdered on Thursday night last, and asking that a reward be offered for the apprehension of the murderers. No cause is assigned, but the Bureau officers think it was from political animosity.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON has pardoned Hon. B. H. Hill of Georgia, who was one of the ablest and most uncompromising rebels in the Confederate Provisional Congress, and afterwards in the Rebel Senate till the close of the war. Thus is "treason becoming odious."

WITHIN five days, Republican clubs were organized in thirteen different parishes of Louisiana. For every drop of blood shed at the New Orleans massacre, the next election in that State will show a Republican vote.—Johnson it is said, complains that Mayor Monroe has got him into a great many bad scrapes. We never knew a bad workman that did not curse his tools.

THE rebels in Western Louisiana are deterring the negroes from registering by telling them that it will cost ten dollars a head tax. But it won't work. The negroes know the value of the ballot and were the lie a truth they would find some way to pay it. The right to vote has insured them fair treatment, and they will exercise it to the end of securing their newly found rights.

GEN. GRIFFIN and General Reynolds, of Texas, report to General Sheridan, that Judge Rives, of the ninth Judicial district of that State, in a charge to the grand jury of this court, stated that he should not receive the testimony of negroes, as the law of Congress on the subject was unconstitutional, and he therefore defied them. They also report the same facts against Judge Dougherty, who stated in the headquarters of General Reynolds that as regards the testimony of negroes he would not recognize the law or authority of Congress, and will be bound only to the sovereign State of Texas. Reports of a like character are coming in almost daily from the different sections of this State.

STANBERY'S opinion is having its effect in Texas. Mayor Haviland, of Galveston, has refused to recognize the military authority.

Local Items.

VISIT OF GEN. GRANT AND GOV. GEARY.—Thursday last was an interesting day in Gettysburg. At an early hour, flags were flung to the breeze, the streets were lighted up with strangers and the busy crowd teemed with expectation. Visitors came in from all parts of the county, and many from neighboring counties to see the great Captain of the age, and the worthy Soldier who so faithfully and fearlessly discharges the high duties of the Executive Office in our State.

By the noon train, Gov. GEARY, Deputy Secretary GARA, Private Secretary DUNGLINSON, and several ladies arrived, and took lodging at the Franklin House. Gen. GRANT failed to make connection in Baltimore, in the morning; and leaving Baltimore at 12.10, was brought by special train from Hanover Junction, and arrived by 4 o'clock. He was met at the depot by Gov. GEARY and the Committee of Arrangement of the Board of Commissioners of the National Cemetery.—As the party reached the street, they were loudly cheered by the large crowd who had gathered. They repaired to the residence of DAVID WILLS, Esq., where Gen. GRANT and his aid Gen. PORTER remained during their stay. So great was the anxiety of the crowd that they immediately called out Gen. GRANT and Gov. GEARY who were introduced to large numbers in attendance. The former declined to speak; but the latter responded in some happy remarks which were well received.

After dining, the party visited the field west of the town, and also rode out to Cemetery Hill—the next morning completing their examination of the entire field. In the evening an impromptu entertainment was given them at the Franklin House by the Commissioners of the Cemetery; and Friday afternoon, Gen. GRANT left for Washington, and Gov. GEARY for Harrisburg.

The occasion was one of great interest, as it enabled all our citizens to see the great soldier who had the honor of giving the last deadly blow to the Rebellion, and whose name is enwrapped with the whole history of the war. Some regret was felt at this failure to speak; but it is known that the nearest he ever got to making a speech was on a recent visit to Washington, Penna., when he told the impatient and persistent crowd "that they would get wet now if they did not go home out of the rain!" General GRANT is a man of deed, rather than word, and the American people must become accustomed, and reconciled, to this peculiarity.

He expressed great gratification at his visit, and expressed a hope that 'circumstances would be such as to allow him to participate in the ceremonies of the inauguration of the Monument in the National Cemetery, on the 4th of July, 1868.

MEMORIAL CHURCH.—The project to erect a Memorial Church, in Gettysburg, to commemorate the Christian element so largely represented in the war for the suppression of the Rebellion, is assuming definite shape, and bids fair to be a success.—On last Thursday evening, a public meeting was held in the Court-house, to inaugurate the movement. The Court-house was densely crowded with ladies and gentlemen.—Gov. GEARY presided, while Gen. GRANT and other distinguished gentlemen honored the occasion with their presence. As Gen. GRANT and Gov. GEARY entered the Court-room, side by side, a storm of applause greeted them, which continued for several minutes. Gov. GEARY opened the meeting with a few brief remarks, explanatory of the object, which had his most cordial approval, and introduced the Rev. Mr. CREVER, of the M. E. Church, who in an eloquent and earnest speech urged the prosecution of the enterprise as one appealing to the patriotic and christian sentiment of the land, and eminently fitting to commemorate the heroism of our Christian soldiery who had consecrated themselves to the cause of the Union, and in its defence had given their lives. The Association was organized by electing Gov. Geary President, Rev. H. B. Crever Secretary, with Gens. Grant, Meade, Howard, Sykes, and Hancock, Bishops Simpson and Ames, Hon. Edward M'Pherson, Speaker Colfax, and other distinguished gentlemen, as Managers.

A number of subscriptions were then made, by persons becoming members of the Association, after which it was announced that another meeting would be called to organize a local auxiliary association, and canvass for subscriptions. Repeated calls were made for Gen. GRANT, but having long since announced his purpose not to make public speeches, it soon became evident that he was determined to "fight it out on this line," and he left the meeting at its close, amid another tempest of applause. Hon. E. MCPHERSON was also called on, but he had left the room a few minutes previously.

We understand that negotiations are in progress for the purchase of "Smith's corner," on the public square, as a site for the contemplated edifice—a capital location.

P. S.—The Committee have purchased the above site for $6,000.

An auxiliary Association was formed in this place last evening.

THE PENNSYLVANIA SYNOD.—This body met in Lebanon last week. In the proceedings we find the following having reference to Pennsylvania College:

Rev. B. M. SCHMUCKER, of Easton, presented the report of the Committee on the President's report. The first item, reaffirming the action of the Synod at the last convention, confining the German Professor of the Synod in Pennsylvania College, it Gettysburg, to instruction in the collego, and no longer in the Theological Seminary at that place, was unanimously adopted. The second item heartily approves of the resignation of Professor MUHLENBURG, of the Franklin Professorship in Pennsylvania College, for the purpose of accepting the Presidency of Muhlenburg College, at Allentown, which, under the care of this Synod, will regularly open during this summer or fall. The next item of interest was the duty devolving upon the Synod of nominating a successor to Professor MUHLENBERG in Pennsylvania College, which elicited an interesting discussion upon the duties and qualifications of the nominee for the chair, which was participated in by Rev. Drs. KRAUTH, of Philadelphia, and NORRIS, of Baltimore, Md., Revs. SCHMUCKER, WELDON, Professor MUHLENBERG and others. The next day, Rev. Mr. RHS, now preaching in Manayunk, was nominated by a decided vote. He is a Dane, was formerly a Missionary in Africa, and is in middle life.

PRESBYTERIAL ITEMS.—We gather these items from the proceedings of the Presbytery of Carlisle at recent meetings held in Harrisburg and Hagerstown. Rev. JOHN C. WOODBURN, formerly of the United Presbyterian Church in this place, has accepted a call to Dickinson. Rev. J. N. PATTERSON was appointed to declare the Great Conowago and Lower Marsh Creek pulpits vacant at Lower Marsh Creek on the second Sabbath of July. Rev. J. R. WARNER was dismissed to the Presbytery of St. Louis, and Rev. D. T. CARNAHAN to the Presbytery of Ohio. Stated supplies for the church at Spraggsville (Y. S.) were provided as follows: Fourth Sabbath in June, Rev. P. H. MOWRY; third Sabbath in July, Rev. W. P. COCHRAN; third Sabbath in August, Rev. JAMES S. WOODBURN; third Sabbath in September, J. S. RAMSEY, to administer the Lord's Supper. The next regular meeting of Presbytery to be held in Emmittsburg.

The Johns family in this county have a prospect of sharing a fortune of $60,000,000, left by a relative who recently died in Wales. The heirs have had several meetings, the last at Dayton, O. About 150 reported heirs were present—among them Mr. Jesse Johns of this county.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.—The session of the Theological Seminary at this place, closes to-day, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday being occupied in examination of the classes by the Faculty, a Committee of the Board, and visitors. The graduating class is one of much promise, embracing young men of fine talents and culture, and most of them are already invited to important fields of labor, viz:—T. C. Billheimer, J. G. Griffith, H. C. Grossman, A. J. Hesson, J. C. Koller, and H. W. McKnight. They go forth enjoying the confidence and bearing with them the best wishes of this community. Besides these, several others of the same class, under the pressure for more ministers, had previously entered upon their work, and are now laboring in different sections of the Church. The Board of Directors will meet for business the second week in August.

JUDICIAL SALES.—Last winter the Legislature passed an Act in regard to Judicial Sales, the 2nd and 3rd sections of which more particularly should be borne in mind by purchasers of real estate. The 2nd section provides that private sales made by order of Court, under the Act of 1853, shall discharge the premises sold from the lien of the debts of the decedent, except debts of record, and debts secured by mortgage. The 3rd section provides that when the lien of a mortgage on real estate is prior to all other liens except other mortgages, ground rents, &c., the lien of such mortgage is not to be destroyed or in any way affected by any judicial or other sale. A case occurred in Harrisburg, only a day after this law went into force, where a party bid $5,000 on a certain property, against which was a mortgage of $5,000—thus, by the terms of this act, the purchaser becoming responsible for the payment of $10,000, for that for which he had only bid $5,000. Bidders at judicial sales had better hereafter have the records of mortgages, &c. examined, and regulate their bids accordingly.

THE CROPS.—Much anxiety is expressed throughout some sections of the country in reference to the coming harvest. It is felt that a great deal depends upon the present year's crop of grain, as well commercially and financially, as in individual cases.—Against this country there are heavy balances in the old world, and as a commercial equilibrium must be maintained—we must either export grain or gold. The more of the former we can make useful in payment, the more healthy it will be for our finances, which are at present in a somewhat embarrassed condition. The nation always depends upon its agricultural products, and never more than now. Europe pays tribute to us, and leans upon the bounty of our soil. The present indication are that the harvest will be a bountiful one of cereals, and also of fruit in some sections of country, but not so much so in this section.

As a proof, we have the rapid decline in the price of flour. There are several heavy speculators in wheat, who have recently failed; yet there are millions of bushels in the West. May old Mother Earth give us a large yield, and we will thankfully receive it as a special gift from Providence.

SUNDRY ITEMS.—The session of the Normal School will close next Friday, to be resumed in six weeks.—The Commencement at Mt. St. Mary's College takes place to-day; the exercises at St. Joseph's to-morrow. The ladies connected with the Catholic church, Emmittsburg, will give dinners and suppers during those days, the proceeds to go towards erecting a steeple on their church.—Jacob Benner has been elected Treasurer of the Alms-House.—Capt. McCurdy has rebuilt the Railroad bridge over Rock Creek.—Sheriff Hann last Saturday night arrested near Graeffenberg, Isaac Kane, charged with being engaged in the stealing of the horse of Capt. Witmor and Mr. Lower, a year or more ago. He was lodged in jail.

A FINE IMPROVEMFT.—The Odd Fellows Hall Association of York Springs have contracted for the erection of a Hall, 30 feet by 65, three story brick, iron front. The contractor is C. A. PEACOCK, at $8,390. Work is to be begun at once, and the Hall to be finished by the 1st of January. The plan contemplates a large store room on the first floor, a Town Hall on the second, and a Lodge room on the third. The location is on the old Gardner corner, above Hartman and Sadler's store.

HOME PAPERS.—Recollect if a home weekly paper is to be supported, home influence must do it. A county acquires prominence through its papers more than in any other way, and to every one who has an interest in his county at heart, his home paper is a necessity. Never will such a man take a paper from home until he is able to take a second paper. His first paper will be his home sheet and he will so identify his own interest with that of his county paper, as to consider his subscription as much a matter of yearly duty as payment of his taxes.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL.—There will be a Festival, with abundance of Ice Cream and Strawberries, at the Hunterstown M. E. Church on Thursday and Friday evenings 27th and 28th inst., the object of which is the payment of a debt hanging over the Church.

The Gettysburg Orchestra has been engaged and will be present on the occasion to enliven the entertainment with some of their choicest music. A pleasant time is anticipated and all are cordially invited to be present.

☞The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania have made the first Monday of May, 1868, return day for Adams, York and Lancaster counties.

14TH N. Y. S. M.—Last week we noticed the proposed excursion of one of the military companies from New York to this place, on the 4th of July. We learn that the company go to Philadelphia on the 1st, and spend a day in that city, reaching Gettysburg on the evening of the 3d, and leaving on the morning of the 5th. During their stay they will quarter at the "Eagle Hotel," Col. TATE Proprietor, and on the 4th will visit the Battle-field." The 14th is said to be one of the best drilled regiments of New York, and will doubtless make a soldierly display.

BADLY CUT.—We learn that on Friday of week before last, Mr. George Feiser, of Union township, was severely cut in the leg while engaged in cutting lumber with an adze, which slipped, cutting an ugly gash in Mr. F.'s foot.

We are also informed that Mr. Samuel Palmer, of the same township, met with a similar accident while chopping wood. In both cases medical aid was required.

☞We understand that a child of Mr David KROFT, residing in the neighborhood of Irishtown, was bit by a mad dog on Wednesday of week before last. The dog belonged to Mr. Kroft, and was tied at the time of biting the child, and soon after he became raving mad, when he was killed.

FESTIVAL.—There will be a Strawberry, and Ice Cream Festival held in Bendersville, in the Hall adjoining O. P. House's Hotel, on Saturday evening, the 29th inst., for the benefit of the new M. E. Church.

☞Hon. Wm. E. Finck, of Ohio, recently democratic Representative in Congress, has been nominated by his party for the State Senate. He is related to the Fink family of this county. He is a good lawyer, and an attentive legislator. We are not "posted" as to his prospects of election.

☞Mr. Joseph Spangler has purchased the property of the late Abraham Reever, in Mt. Pleasant township—83 acres at $3,400 cash.

WEEVIL.—The red weevil has made its appearance in the late growing wheat in this neighborhood, and is doing some injury, but the early wheat is beyond its ravages.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE SOLDIERS' NATIONAL CEMETERY.—The Board met on Wednesday evening, the 19th inst. The Commissioners in attendance were Messrs. HERARD of Vermont, EDWARDS, of Massachusetts, HAMMOND of Connecticut, MCCURDY of New York, DU BOIS of New Jersey, WILLS of Pennsylvania, DENNOND of Maryland, BLAKE of Indiana, CARR of Illinois, FERRY of Michigan, and SELLECK of Wisconsin.

DAVID WILLS, Esq., President of the Association, called the meeting to order, and in the absence of Mr. BARTLETT, the regular Secretary, Mr. FERRY was elected Secretary pro tem. After the reading of the minutes, and hearing reports of committees and the Treasurer's report, General J. W. HOFFMAN, Secretary of the "Reynold's Monument Committee," was introduced, and stated that the Committee had determined to erect a Bronze Statue in the Soldiers' National Cemetery to the memory of Major General JOHN F. REYNOLDS, under the provisions of a resolution of the Board passed April 7, 1864, in reference to the erection of monuments in the Cemetery, and solicited from the Board some aid in the preparation of the foundation for the statue. A resolution was then passed, directing foundation to be laid and a suitable pedestal erected, upon which to place the Bronze Statue of Gen. Reynolds, within the Cemetery, at a cost not exceeding two thousand dollars.

The subject of the future care of the Cemetery after its final completion, was then taken up and discussed, and a resolution passed appointing Messrs. Selleck, Hebard, Carr, McCurdy, Wills, Blake, and Ferry, a committee to inquire "what steps are necessary, and whether practicable and expedient, to transfer the care and supervision of the Soldiers' National Cemetery at Gettysburg, to the United States, under the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved Feb. 22, 1866, entitled, 'An act to establish and perfect National Cemeteries,' and to report to the Board at their next annual meeting."

After the transaction of some other business of minor importance, the Board adjourned.

The Monument to be erected in the Cemetery will be finished and dedicated on the 4th of July, 1868. The Association has already paid the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars in instalments, on the work as it has progressed, and there yet remains to be paid the sum of twenty-four thousand dollars. The base and shaft of the monument will be of white granite, and is being worked out at the quarries, at Westerley, R. I. The Statuary (five pieces of colossal statuary) is being made in Rome (Italy), under the supervision of Mr. Rogers, the American Sculptor, residing there. When this monument is erected the work in the Cemetery will be complete.

NATIONAL CEMETERIES.—Reference was made in the proceedings of the Commissioners of the Cemetery to recent legislation on this subject. We have hunted up the act, and find that in it Congress provided for the proper enclosure of all the cemeteries which have been established for the burial of deceased soldiers and sailors; for making each grave with a proper headstone, and for keeping proper lists. A porter's lodge is to be built at the entrance of each cemetery to be occupied by the superintendent, who is to be detailed from the enlisted men of the army, disabled in service, and who shall have the pay of an ordnance sergeant. The Secretary of War is to detail some officer of the army, not under the rank of Major, to visit annually all the Cemeteries, and to inspect and report to him their condition, and the amount of money necessary to protect them, to sod the graves, gravel and grade the walks and avenues, and to keep the grounds in complete order, and Congress is to appropriate annually what it may think necessary. The sum of seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars was appropriated to carry out the provisions of this act.

This act applies to all the National Cemeteries in existence except those at Antietam and Gettysburg, which were established by the States. The question of giving control of ours to the General Government has been raised. As nothing will be done within a year, there is abundant time for consideration. On the one hand it is claimed that propriety indicates that Pennsylvania should have the care of this Cemetery perpetually, and that this was the understanding expressed when it was established. On the other hand, it is held that the Superintendency would be more complete and economical if this was one of a chain of Cemeteries under National control than by standing upon a separate footing; and that it is desirable it should be under a military superintendence, and be cared for by the comrades of those who fell. No doubt, the Committee will give the whole subject full investigation.

BASE BALL.—A game of base ball was played on Saturday afternoon last, as we learn, between the "young boys' club of New Oxford," and the "young mens' club of Abbottstown." Both clubs has been organized but a short time—the former composed principally of small boys, and the latter of grown young men, who were the challenging party. The Oxford boys have great reason to be jubilant over the defeat of their more Herculean-like opponents. The New Oxford boys beat their neighbors 12. The Abbottstown club not very well satisfied with the game, intend having it played over on Saturday next at New Oxford. The game on Saturday was played at Abbottstown.

MARE STOLEN.—A valuable mare was stolen from John Hartman, at Mummasburg, on Thursday night last. She is described as heavy set, 7 years old, 14 hands high, with a scar or split on the right hind hoof; branded U. S. on the left shoulder, and C under the mane. The York Insurance Company offers a reward of $200 for the thief and $30 for the mare. Mr. Hartman offers $25 additional for the mare.

SAD AND FATAL ACCIDENT.—We record with much regret a fatal accident which befell Charles Miller, son of Mr. Solomon Miller, residing near Rock Creek, in Cumberland townspip, on Thursday last.—Whilst returning from Conowago, young Miller, with several others, all on horseback, started off at a brisk pace. The colt he was riding became unmanageable, and running against a wagon, threw him violently to the ground—the animal falling on him. He was taken up in an insensible condition, and continued in that state until Friday morning, when death ensued. We understand that he was 15 or 16 years of age, and an only son.—The parents and sisters have the sympathy of the community in their deep affliction.

TOWN IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. Henry Overdeer has in course of erection a two-story brick building, for store and dwelling, on Baltimore street; Dr. T. T. Tate a two-story frame dwelling on Chambersburg street; Mr. A. R. Feiste a two-story frame dwelling on Breckinridge street. Major Jacob Sanders has had a store building erected on his lot in York street, and Ex-Sheriff Wolf has had the store building adjoining the Globe Inn, also on York street, raised and much improved.

☞The Festival of "Corpus Christi," was celebrated at Conowago Chapel, on Thursday last, with unusually impressive ceremonies.—Rev. Mr. VILLIGER, assisted by Rev. Mr. BOHL, officiated. The attendance was very large.

BATTLE-FIELD MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION.—The following gentlemen were, on Monday last, elected officers of this Association, viz:

President—Hon. Joseph R. Ingersoll.

Directors—H. C. Carey, Edmund A. Souder, Wm. M. Hersh, David A. Stewart, Hon. O. A. Heister, H. N. M'Allister, D. M'Conaughy, H. L. Baugher, J. B. Danner, R. G. McCreary, Geore Arnold, A. D. Buehler, Charles Horner.

The Board of Directors organized on Tuesday by appointing Rev. Dr. BAUGHER as Chairman of the Executive Committee (which is composed of the resident Directors); D. MCCONAUGHY, Secretary; GEORGE ARNOLD, Treasurer.

This Association, as our readers know, was organized to secure and preserve the grounds, breast-works, &c., occupied by the Union lines during the battle of July, 1863, and erect such monuments, from time to time, as may be thought desirable to mark places of special interest. It has secured and paid for 140 acres, including the ground on which REYNOLDS fell and most of the lines occupied by MEADE on the 2d and 3d of July. It is a commendable enterprise, and appeals strongly to the patriotic sentiment of the country for encouragement and support.

A DESIRABLE PICTURE.—An interesting scene transpired on Friday morning, at the Orphans' Homestead. General Grant, and His Excellency, Governor Geary, on setting out, with their escort, to make the tour of the battle-field, halted at the door of the Institution, to be photographed in company with the fatherless little ones there sheltered. The Generals dismounted, and Gen. Geary, leaving the grouping, kindly assisted in arranging the children. Gen. Grant, and the Governor, with Generals Horace Porter and S. W. Crawford, formed the centre of the grouping, and on either side stood the boys and girls. All remained standing until two negatives were taken.

The picture will be a very interesting one. Among the Orphans included in it are children from Illinois, Michigan, Maryland, New York, and our own State. The photograph is to be copy-righted and sold exclusively for the benefit of the Soldiers' Orphans at the Homestead. Copies will be ready within a few days, at Mr. Tyson's gallery, in this place.

THE MEMORIAL CHURCH.—A meeting of subscribers to the Memorial Church enterprise, was held in the Methodist Church last evening, D. A. BUEHLER, Esq., presiding, and Dr. J. W. C. O'NEAL acting as Secretary. A local association was formed, auxiliary to the organization by which Gov. GEARY is President, and articles of association adopted. The following officers were elected, viz:

President—R. G. McCreary.

Vice Presidents—M. McClean, John Culp.

Secretary—David Wills.

Cor. Secretary—J. W. C. O'Neal.

Treasurer—J. L. Schick.

Executive Committee—J. L. Schick, C. H. Buehler, E. G. Fahnestock, W. A. Duncan, A. J. Cover, T. C. Norris, Wm. Guinn, A. M. Hunter.

The Executive Committee were instructed to proceed at once to canvass for subscriptions.

☞The Lecture by Rev. B. VILLIGER, in the Catholic Church, Monday night, on the "Existence of God," was an able and eloquent effort, worthy of a larger audience. The Rev. Speaker based his argument upon the intelligent design manifested in Creation, the order and harmony pervading the physical universe, and the testimony of conscience. The music by the Choir and the Gettysburg Brass Band was very fine.

NEW OXFORD IN SUMMER.

MESSRS EDITORS:—This town is becoming quite a popular place, as a resort for those who desire to escape the heat and turmoil and unhealthiness of great cities during the summer months, for the pure air, the refreshing shade, the enlivening and revigorating influence of the country, where the "heated term" can be not only endured, but lived through pleasantly, and with benefit to the health and temper. New Oxford possesses most of the necessary qualifications as a summer resort. It is situated on an elevated place, on the railroad, and near where the decided battle was fought during our late war—only 10 miles from Gettysburg, and near the beautiful stream of the Conowago, and all the advantages necessary for a summer resort are hers in profusion. The scenery which, is unsurpassed in loveliness and beauty, approaching indeed to grandeur and sublimity, greets the eye of the traveler, as he traverses the country. Spot is offered in various ways—a ride on the Railroad, a drive, a walk, or if sport with the finny tribe can give him pleasure, or with the gun, &c., he will find it here.

The country around, swelling out on all sides in broad profusion, with the blue water of the Conowago visible and accessible from points, is all that nature can make it. Excellent roads for driving, pleasant groves for pic-nic parties, springs of water for health and recreation. All that nature can do, has she done here in many ways.

The principal objection to the town has heretofore been the lack of boarding accommodations. I boarded here several summers ago, and will do so this summer, but half cannot be accommodated that desire coming; therefore others for this reason are obliged to go elsewhere. This is quite a lively and pleasant town, and new faces are more numerous every day. I must stop writing and take a view of the distant blue Mountain, and the Pigeon Hills. Every day communication can be had with Baltimore city, and her markets, and with a little enterprise upon the part of its citizens, if only art will do a little what nature has done, in a few years, New Oxford, in Adams County, Pa., will be one of the principal resorts in the country—or it can be made such, as it is even now one of the most pleasant. VISITOR.

[COMMUNICATED.]

SHUTTING UP THE SPRINGS.

A good deal of excitement is being produced by the rumor that the Medicinal Springs on the McClean farm are about to be closed against the Gettysburg public, and quite a number of persons are resorting thither to inspect the works in progress of construction there, supposed to be intended to accomplish that object.

Being in the vicinity the other day, I too paid them a flying visit. I had been one of the first to visit these springs after it was announced that a scientific examination had confirmed the popular testimony in regard to their healing virtues, but had not before repeated my visit.

I was therefore much impressed with the great change which had been effected in their surroundings since I last saw them.

Then I had to pick my way to them across a field overgrown with grass and weeds, without the aid of paths or other landmarks, and when I reached them the spot appeared to me singularly wild and unfrequented. But now a road almost as distinct as the highway, and numerous paths, conduct you to it from every direction, while everywhere in the vicinity are other unmistakeable signs of its being a place of general resort.

I found here quite a number of other visitors engaged in examining the rustic cottage and granite fountain which had just been completed. Being personally known to many of them, I experienced no difficulty in entering into conversation.

I was not long in making the discovery that these persons, one and all, were opposed to the shutting-up operation, and some of them regarded with no friendly eye the improvements which look to such a result.

As usual, when anything disagreeable or unfortunate has occurred, or is about to occur, somebody must be blamed, and censure was distributed among several parties. Some censured the proprietor for the ungracious purpose attributed to him. Some blamed the Springs Hotel Company, while all denounced in unmeasured terms the pretended loyal capitalists who refused to contribute the money necessary to erect near these springs a mammoth summer hotel, though it was demonstrated that the investment would be a paying one; and it was known to be a favorite project with the Union Generals who commanded at Gettysburg, and who snatched the whole North from spoliation and invasion.

The conversation turned upon the medicinal virtues of this water, and each related what he personally knew or had been credibly informed of its curative effects; and I was soon put in possession of a variety of new and interesting facts in this connection.

One of the narrators reported the cure with this water of an obstinate and distressing neuralgia; another, of rheumatism; another of gout, of gravel, and various other kidney and urinary diseases; of stomach, bowel, and liver complaints; of heart, throat, or cutaneous affections, and so on through nearly the whole category of chronic diseases. Some of these cures were remarkable—almost miraculous—from the incredibly brief period of time within which they had been effected—from the desperate and otherwise incurable types of disease with which the sufferers had been afflicted. Some who had used this water only for a few weeks, had taken up their beds and walked after long confinements. Others had under its influence thrown away their crutches or canes after they had used them for years, in some instances almost during the lifetime of a generation. Another had recovered the use of an arm or a leg paralyzed by chronic rheumatism, rheumatic gout, or other afflictions. One at least had been cured of an eye disease, or of some other disease producing confusion or blending of the objects of vision to the extent of practical blindness.

WISTAR'S WILD CHERRY BALSAM.—This Balsamic compound has become a home fixture. Let all who suffer, and have in vain attempted to cure their coughs, colds, bronchial or pulmonary complaints, make use of this unequalled remedy. It can be relied upon, as the mass of testimony that has been published since its introduction is ample proof of its efficacy. 1t

A GOOD CHANCE.—The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement of MICHAEL HOKE, of Linganore, Md., offering his Farm at Private Sale. It is represented to be a valuable property, well located, and presents unusual inducements for purchasers. 1t

PHOTOGRAPHS made at SHARPPER'S New Gallery, at Hanover, are all warranted to give entire satisfaction—never to fade or turn yellow, and made in a superior style of workmanship. Give him a trial.

Of the five hundred and twenty exhibitors from the United States at the Paris Exposition, awards have been made in favor of two hundred and sixty-two.

Gen. Negley, of Pittsburg, has been appointed Pennsylvania representative in the Antietam Cemetery Board.

GEN. Sheridan has written a letter to Grant, in which he states that Mr. Stanberry's interpretation of the law regarding registration practically opens "a broad macadamized road for perjury and fraud to travel on."

GEN. Schenck, now in Washington, has received telegrams and letters from different members of both Houses, and says that he feels warranted in making the prediction that a quorum will be present on the 4th of July.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

This remedy has long been cherished by the community for its remarkable efficacy in relieving, healing and curing the most obstinate, painful and long-standing cases of Cough, Cold, Influenza, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Inflammation of the Lungs; while even Consumption itself has yielded to its magic influence when all other means have failed. In whole history proves that the past has produced no remedy of equal value, as a cure for the numerous and dangerous pulmonary affections which prevail all over the land.

UNSOLICITED TESTIMONY.

From ANDREW ARCHER, Esq., of Fairfield, Me.

"About eight years since my son, Henry A. Archer, now Postmaster at Fairfield, Somerset County, Me., was attacked with spitting of blood, cough, weakness of Lungs, and general debility, so much so that our family physician declared him to have a "SPEEDY CONSUMPTION." He was under medical treatment for a number of months, but received no benefit from it. At length, from the solicitation of himself and friends, I was induced to purchase one bottle of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, which benefitted him so much I obtained another bottle, which in a short time restored him to his usual state of health. I think I can safely recommend this remedy to others in the condition, for I do, I think, all it purports to be—THE GREAT LUNG RESTORATIVE OF THE TIMES! The above statement, gentlemen, is my voluntary offering to you in favor of your Balsam, and is at your disposal."

SCORE OF OUR CONTEMPORARIES seem to think that the triumph of their cause depended, like the fate of Jericho upon the amount of noise made. In these days of refined ment and luxury, an article of real intrinsic merit is soon appreciated; hence the unbounded and unparalleled success of PLANTATION BITTERS.

This remedy has ever and always been found reliable. As a gentle stimulant and tonic appetiser it cannot be excelled. It is no doubt a sovereign remedy for stomachic disorders—for Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, and in stimulating a healthy appetite.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE.
AMHERST, MASS., Oct. 13, 1867.

Mr. Grace—Dear Sir:—Having been afflicted grievously for several weeks with a severe abscess upon my side. I used several remedies for its eradication without receiving any relief, until I applied your salve, which effected a speedy and permanent cure. I therefore feel happy to certify my confidence in its virtues.

Yours with respect,
JAMES BEAN.

BLOOD! BLOOD!! BLOOD!!!

PURIFY YOUR BLOOD.

MAIZE'S BLOOD PURIFYING AGENT.

An effectual remedy in curing: Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Tetter, Ulcers and Sores, Blotches, Pimples, Tumors, Boils, Pustules, General Debility, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Female Irregularities and Complaints, and, in general, all diseases having their origin in an impure condition of the Blood, or a disorder state of the nervous system.

This medicine, the result of skillful and scientific combination, is a purely vegetable preparation, free from all injurious ingredients.

Its use soon indicates it renovates the Blood, purges out the corruptions that breed in it, restoring its healthy action and vitality, and striking at the very seat of disease and destruction. It thus gives to possessors such wonderful powers of second sight, as to enable him to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single and married of either sex. While in a state of transition, it delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, drawn as in a daguerreotype, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with date of marriage, position in life leading characteristics, &c. This is no humbug, for thousands of testimonials can assert. She will send when desired a certified certificate, or written guarantee, that the picture is what it purports to be. By enclosing a small lock of hair, and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion, and enclosing fifty cents and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture and desired information by return mail. All communications sacredly confidential. Address in confidence, MADAME E. F. THORNTON, P. O. Box 228, Hudson, New York. [Feb. 23, 1867.—1y

A YOUNG LADY

returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the City, was hardly recognised by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face; she had a softruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but sixteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any Lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or Gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as Nature intended it should be, clear, soft smooth and healthful. Agricultural Implements.

THE PREMIUM

MOWER AND REAPER,

DODGES HARVESTER.

AWARDED the Special Diploma and Grand Medal of Honor as the best combined Mower Hand-Raking Reaper and Self-Raking Reaper—on exhibition at the great fair of the St. Louis Agricultural and Mechanical Association October 5th, 1866.

OHIO AND BUCKEYE PATENTS

At the great trial of Reapers and Mowers at Auburn N. Y., in July last by the New York State Agricultural Society, this Machine was awarded the preference over all others in Class No 5. This class was the most important of any as it embraced Mowing and Hand or Self-Raking Reaper in the same Machine.

This Machine has been awarded Medals and first Premiums by the Pennsylvania and Iowa state Fairs, and by hundreds of County Fairs in all parts of the country.—This Machine took the first Premium at the Adams County Agricultural Fair held at Bendersville, September 1866. Also,

BALL'S OHIO AND RUSSELL'S SCREW POWER,

Both first-class Machines, having sold a number of these Machines in the last three years. They have given general satisfaction wherever used. We ask farmers before buying a machine to call and examine these machines before purchasing elsewhere, as they will be able to make a better selections. We could produce quite a number of certificates from some of our best Farmers in the County, but deem it unnecessary, as we warrant these machines to give satisfaction with a fair trial, or no sale. Insured for one season.

Extras always kept on hand. We have made arrangements to have repairing done when needed at any time and on moderate terms.

With these we have for sale a number of valuable farming Implements.

SULKY CORN PLOUGH

Can be used for ploughing and cultivating corn—finishing one row at a time. Can also be used for loosening up corn ground or putting in seeding—by raising the front shovels it can be used for marking out corn ground 7-markings two rows at a time. A Coruplanter can also be attached, planting 2 rows at a time.

CORN CRUSHERS

For crushing corn in the ear or shelled.

THE NATIONAL

REAPERS AND MOWERS.

HOFFHEIN'S PATENTS.

THE No. 1 Machine has Two Driving Wheels, Hinge Joint and Folding Bar, making it very convenient to move from one place to another; is very simple in its construction, extremely light draught, and durable, cuts 4 feet 10 inches in grass and 5 feet 2 inches in grain; is a Self-Raker and Side-Delivery, and is capable of cutting a whole field without binding a sheaf, and does the most satisfactory work.

This Machine can also be used as a Hand Machine without injuring its qualities as a Reaper. The Machine is warranted to cut Grass as easy and clean as any Mower that cuts the same width. It is a strong two-horse Machine—three or four can be used, if required, in hilly ground.

GREAT IMPROVEMENTS have been made for the coming season.

The Machine is also perfectly balanced, no weight on the horses' necks in Mowing or Reaping.

All are remember that at the Mowing trial last Summer in Gettysburg, in competition with 6 other leading Machines, the above named Machine was awarded the First Premium. This way if you want the best Machine.

No. 2 is a light two-horse Machine, and is differently constructed, cutting on the right-hand side; and is also a Two-Horse Wheels, is a Self-Raker and Side Delivery—The difference in the width of cut is 6 inches.

The shifting lever and the raising and lowering levers are both at the driver's right side, and with his right foot upon a pedal and his left upon a foot step, he has the power and control of the whole machine, he can raise or lower the platform from three to fourteen inches, can throw the machine out of gear, and regulate the rake so as to make the sheaves large or small, and all this at the same time and without retarding the motion or speed of the machine.

Keep it before the people that at a fair mowing trial 7 different leading Machines were present at Dillsburg, York, co., last Summer and the National Machine was awarded the first premium.

All machines warranted to give satisfaction! For further information apply to

SHIREMAN'S

NATIONAL SELF-DISCHARGING STEEL SPRING TOOTH

Horse Rake!

Patented Sept. 9th, 1862, and Re-issued Dec. 6th, 1864.

THIS Rake is an Independent Steel Spring Tooth Rake, and has proven itself to be the most perfect HORSE RAKE now in use. With this Rake the Horse does all the work, both in Raking and Discharging, by the Driver moving a lever a few inches, which throws it into gear, and as the horse moves forward it raises the teeth and discharges its load, and then shifts out of gear itself, the teeth dropping down ready to rake again. By this operation it is so easily understood that the Rake has hardly any work to do.

Important improvements have been made of late, making it very simple and durable in its construction. Thousands of them have been sold in the last two years and given the best kind of satisfaction.

☞Circulars giving a fuller description of these Rakes can be had by applying to the Agent.

BRINKERHOEF'S

CORN SHELLER, SEPARATOR

AND CLEANER.

The undersigned would inform the Agricultural public that he has purchased from the Patentee of this extraordinary machine, the Patent Right for the States of Pennsylvania and Maryland.

Brinkerhoff's Corn Sheller, Separator and Cleaner, is pronounced the best machine of the kind in this country. And in proof, it may be mentioned that the "Advisory Committee appointed to select Implements for exhibition at the Universal Exposition in Paris, in 1867, have selected this Sheller as the best in America," and at the request of J. C. Derby, U. S. Agent, a machine has been shipped to Paris for exhibition. One important feature in this machine is that it will shell ears large, small or crooked, perfectly clean, and separates the cob and chaff from the Corn ready for market.

The fact may also be stated that at the great trial of Agricultural Implements, at Auburn, N. Y., in July last, under the auspices of the New York State Agricultural Society, the Brinkerhoff Corn Sheller, Separator and Cleaner was reported by one of the most competent Committees as the best Corn Sheller on exhibition. They were carefully examined and thoroughly tested this machine, and have no hesitation in pronouncing it the best Corn Sheller we ever saw." The report is signed by such men as John Stanton Gould, President N. Y. State Agricultural Society; B. P. Johnson, Secretary to same; Solon Robinson, Agricultural Editor N. Y. Tribune; S. Edward Todd, Agricultural Editor N. Y. Times.

From among many complimentary newspaper notices, the following, from the N. Y. Observer, is deemed sufficient:

"Among all the Hand Corn Shellers made in New York and Albany—and one single firm manufacturers more than 10,000 annually—not one has ever entered the circle with the Sheller just invented by J. Brinkerhoff, Auburn, New York. It shells, separates and cleanses, rapidly and easily, at one operation, as fast as the ears can be put in the hopper."

The undersigned is now prepared to dispose of COUNTY RIGHTS. He will have SHELLERS ready for sale in the course of a month's time.

SEWING MACHINES!

THE GROVER & BAKER.

THE BEST IN USE.—These Machines have become so well known that little need be said by way of recommendation. They have taken the first premium at all the late State Fairs and are universally acknowledged to be the BEST in use by all who have tried them. The "Grover & Baker Stitch" and the "Shuttle Stitch" are points that have been attained by no other Machine—They are the only Machines that sew and embroider with perfection. These Machines are peculiarly adapted to Family use. They are almost noiseless, sew directly from the spool without rewinding, and are simple in their construction. They are easy to manage, and can be worked by almost any child. Every family should have one. They save labor, they save time, and they save money. and do their work better than it can be done by hand.

The undersigned having been appointed Agent for the above Machines, has established an Agency in Fairfield, Adamsco., where he will always have on hand a supply. Persons wishing to buy will please call and examine for themselves.

☞Needles and Thread will also be supplied.

THE HOWE MACHINE CO.'S

SEWING MACHINES,

699 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

These World-renowned Sewing Machines were awarded the Highest Premium at the World's Fair, in London, on six First Premiums at the N. Y. State Fair in 1866, and are celebrated for doing the best work, using a much smaller needle for the same thread than any other machine, and by the introduction of the most approved machinery, we are now able to supply the very best machines in the world.

These machines are made at our new and spacious Factory at Bridgeport, Conn., under the immediate supervision of the President of the Company, ELIAS HOWE, Jr., the original inventor of the Sewing Machine.

They are adapted to all kinds of Family Sewing, and to the use of Seamstresses, Dress Makers, Tailors, Manufacturers of Shirts, Collars, Skirts, Cloaks, Mantillas, Clothing, Hats, Caps, Corsets, Boots, Shoes, Harness, Saddles, Linen Goods, Umbrellas, Parasols, etc. They work equally well upon silk, linen, cotton or woolen goods with silk cotton or linen thread. They will seam, quilt, gather, hem, fell, cord, bind, braid and perform every species of sewing, making a beautiful and perfect stitch, alike on both sides of the article sewed.

The Stitch invented by Mr. HOWE, and made on this Machine, is the most popular and durable, and all Sewing Machines are infringements upon this, as the principle invented by him. Send for Circulars.

DOTY'S CLOTHES WASHER.

THE BEST IN MARKET.

READ THE FOLLOWING HOME TESTIMONY.

GETTYSBURG, PA., Jan. 8, 1866.

Having used DOTY'S CLOTHES WASHER, and thoroughly tested it, we have no hesitation endorsing it as the best Washing Machine yet produced. It is simple in construction—heavily worked, and does its work well, without injury to clothing. An ordinary washing, requiring usually 8 to 10 hours labor at the wash-tub, can be readily be done with the aid of Doty's Washer and the Universal Clothes' Wringer, in one third the time—economizing time, labor, soap, fuel, &c.—rendering the necessity of wash-tubs, and enabling the person working to go through with a washing without wetting themselves or the floor. It really merits all the good that can be said of it. We do not think that any family, after satisfactorily testing it, would dispense with it.

January 13, 1866.

R. C. BROWNING.—Dear Sir:—We like our Machine well; could not be persuaded to do without it, and after the aid of Doty we feel that we are masters of the positions. On one occasion, the clothes were prepared, but the washerwoman failed us. We were not to be defeated that way. I took hold (which of course I should not have if we had had no machine), and in 2½ hours we put through eleven dozen pieces, many of which were sheets, and they were well done, too. We wish you great success.

ASTROLOGY.

THE WORLD ASTONISHED

AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS

MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST,

MADAME H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets to mortal ever know. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, calamities, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, law of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of life to view. From the stars she sees into the firmament—the maleficstars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heaven, at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock or hair.

REPARATOR CAPILLI.

Throw away your false frizzes, your switches, your wigs—Destructive of comfort, and not worth a fig.
Come aged, come youthful, come ugly and fair.
And rejoice in your own luxuriant hair.

REPARATOR CAPILLI

For restoring hair upon bald heads from whatever cause it may have fallen out and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the beard to grow upon the smoothest face in from six to eight weeks, or hair upon bald heads in from one to three months. A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can testify. But fancy will say how to use, or how to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? Certainly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different Preparations now offered for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts of their purchase money—we would say to the Reparator Capilli: it will not cost you a farthing, but will fully come up to our representations. If your Druggist does not keep it, send to one dollar and we will forward it prepaid, together with a pamphlet containing many testimonials. Your money will be returned upon an application, providing certificates are not given. Address,

JULES JARED'S

"EMAIL DE PARIS."

THE NEW BEAUTIFIER OF THE SKIN.

Testimonials from Celebrated Ladies:

The secret of beautifying the skin being known only to Jules, Jared & Sons, they honorably state that it differs from all other preparations. It gives to the most harsh and freckled skin both the texture and color of polished ivory, removing all discolorations whether appearing as freckles, tan, morphew, moth, or blackworm specks, and is specially successful in smoothing out the marks left by Small Pox.

The agents of "L'Email de Paris" must confidently submit to the public the earnest endorsements of such distinguished ladies as

and many others, whose high standing in the profession gives the stamp of truthfulness to their intelligent and genuine approval.

The Beautiful Lucille Western says:—

I find that the "Email" produces all the brilliancy of rouge and lilly-white, with the great and peculiar advantage of total harmlessness. It really adds to the softness and beauty of the skin.

The Magnificent Vestvali says:—

I have suffered so much from the various white lotions, &c., which my theatrical profession obliges me to use, that I consider it a perfect benefaction to find a preparation which gives the necessary whiteness to the skin, and leaves the skin cool and smooth.

Miss Maggie Mitchell says:—

I have tried the skin beautifier, "L'Email de Paris," and found that it instantantly imparts a natural bloom and freshness to the complexion.

"Jared Email de Paris" is used as a delicate beautifier of the skin for Theatre, Saloon or Ball Room, by the most refined and scrupulous ladies; producing all the beautifying effects of rouge and lilly white, without the vulgar glare or iniquity to the skin.

Sold by all first-class Druggists, Perfumers and Ladies' Hair Dressers.
